

Is Modern Education Empowering or Entrapping Christians: A Humble Inquiry into Spiritual Discernment

Sixbert SANGWA • April 26, 2024

In the modern world, we are often told that education is the key to success. However, as Christians, we must critically examine this notion and ask ourselves: "Are we being educated, or are we being programmed?"

Alice Bailey, an agent of the clandestine Illuminati, identified the education process as a key tool in the construction of a new civilization – a civilization that serves not God, but a Luciferian agenda. Bailey placed the education process as the second ray in the hierarchy of devil's disciples, with scientists occupying the fifth ray (Discipleship in the New Age, p128). These individuals, she argued, are endowed with meditative and creative thoughts shaping the new age. They are the ones responsible for investigating the causes of various disasters. Yet, as Christians, we know that these modern disasters (such as floods, storms, droughts, earthquakes, tsunamis, diseases and volcanic eruptions among others) are not [necessarily] natural phenomena but are engineered by Luciferian agents.

The Bible tells us in Hosea 4:6, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge." This verse reminds us that knowledge in itself is not harmful. What matters is the source and application of that knowledge. Are we seeking and applying knowledge in a way that honors God? Or are we using it to serve worldly agendas?

Basic education has been made free in many parts of the world, and this is often touted as a positive development. But we need to ask ourselves, "Is this truly in our favor?" It's important to remember that not everything that seems good is necessarily from God. As it's written in 2 Corinthians 11:14, "And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light."

It is alarming that the most educated individuals in the world, according to worldly standards, are often the ones most at risk of spiritual condemnation. Many highly educated individuals are atheists, made to believe in a supreme force - Lucifer - while turning against the Holy Spirit and embracing rationalism. In their presence, you may even be ridiculed for speaking about Jesus returning to rapture His church. This can probably rise the question about what we really learn!

The things happening in the world today have been prophesized, and we have been forewarned. In Daniel 12:10, we are warned that "Many will be purged, purified and refined, but the wicked will act wickedly; and none of the wicked will understand, but those who have insight will understand." This, alongside the Apostle John's words in Revelation 2:7, "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches," highlights the importance of discernment and spiritual understanding in our times. We are trained to analyze and think in the way of the enemy! Satan and his elects know that time is limited, and their ambition is to deceive as many people as they can, leading them astray to join them in the lake of fire.

In Job 28:28, we are reminded, "And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding." We should not boast about degrees, knowledge, or the programs in our heads. As it is written in Jeremiah 9:23-24, "Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom, let not the mighty man boast in his might, let not the rich man boast in his riches, but let him who boasts boast in this, that he understands and knows me, that I am the LORD who practices steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth."

In conclusion, as Christians, we must approach education with discernment and wisdom, always seeking to understand and know the Lord more deeply. We must resist the programming of the world and instead strive to be programmed by the Word of God, for only then can we truly be free.
